upon the second and last week of its sucday night. The play is a strong one, not only in cast and scenic effects, but also in the lines, which are tuil of bright sayings. The scenes are laid in the vicinity of Rising Bus, led., and the play is of the homely dosale sort of drama, with Houster charac ters. The first scene is a barnyard of a suburban home, with the barn and house, and live pigeons cooing under the caves. In the third act the ismous sawmill is shown, with its intensely dramatic effect. The saw is in full operation, and boards are ripped up as in a sawmill. The scenery throughout is very realistic and effective.

"field in Slavery," a nautical melodrama, will be the next attraction at the Grand Opers-House. The piece is said to teem with racting situations. Fine scenery and mechanical effects are promised. Martin Hayden and Anna Boyle will appear in the leading parts, assisted by Harry Barrymore, Harry Sedley, Y. J. Langdon, Nellie Emmetting Others.

TALK OF THE TURF.

Purchasers of Dundee Race Track Made Up of Jersey Politicians.

LITTLE SILVER'S GOOD RACE

Jockey Horton's Claim Not Allowed-Favorites Ruled at Both Tracks.

It has just leaked out that the syndicate which recently purchased the Dundee race track is made up of prominent Bergen County politicians. It is said that these gentlemen have strong hopes of having a racing bill passed in New Jersey this Winter, and in the event of this coming to pass Dundee will reopen as a full-fledged rival to Guttenburg. The politicians interested are County Clerk Samuel Taylor, County Collector Issac A. Hopper, ex-Sheriff Tunis A. Haring, William E. Taylor, John Ryan, Cornellus E. Eckerson and Cornellus J. Cadmus. If the bill falls to pass the syndicate will convert the property into a real estate property. The syndicate will no doubt learn that conducting a successful race-track is no child's play. Yet the track is very attractive, admirably situated as to raffroad facilities and well appointed. The fact that the running meeting held there a couple of years ago proved a failure does not ndicate that other meetings will meet the same fate. Guttenburg is strongly intrenched to public favor, however, and a rival meeting would have a hard time for awhile.

The Saratoga Racing Association has paid into the State Treasury $1,078, this being the amount of taxes imposed under the lves Pool law on the admission receipts at the track during the past season.

Jockey Burlingame, who was cuffed and beaten at the Bay District (Cal.) track by owner " Curly " Brown because the latter's horse was beaten in a race, has sworn out a Christmas Tree, hoping the children will have warrant for Brown's arrest. The Association as good a time on Christmas Day as 1 expect fined Brown $50, but this did not satisfy the jockey. Brown halls from Montana and has the reputation of having killed two men. He is said to have informed Burlingame that he had a grave ready for a third, and this threat bedly scared the boy, who thinks Brown may kill him.

Tom Hayes was played down to even money in the first race, but was never in the hunt. This borse was a great sprinter during the summer season, and the only reason that can be arrived at for his deteat restorday is that he was not it. . . .

one ton of candy was wanted for THE EVEN-ING WORLD'S Christmas Fund-"2,000 pounds of concentrated sweetness for 40,000 morsels of humanity." Instead of one ton hope it may be five, as each "little morsel of humanity" should get at Christmas time at least enough to let it know the taste of candy. A quarter of a pound of good plain candy is not a bit too much for each child. I holose $5, hoping the little ones will be well provided for. From A FRIEND OF THE CHILDREN.
